VERIFIED AMENDED COMPLAINT
AND REQUEST FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

1. The City of Providence (“City”), Rhode Island brings this claim on behalf of the City by and through its Treasurer, James J. Lombardi, III.
2. The City is a duly chartered municipal entity in the State of Rhode Island.
3. Defendant Stephen Puleo, Jr. upon information and belief, is a resident of Providence, Rhode Island. Defendant Puleo owns real property located in the City of Providence, including but not limited to Plat 17, Lot 555, also known as 54-56 Gano Street.
4. Defendant Michelle Boutin a/k/a Michelle Boutin Puleo, upon information and belief, is a resident of Providence, Rhode Island. Defendant Boutin Puleo owns real property located in the City of Providence, including but not limited to Plat 17, Lot 555, also known as 54-56 Gano Street (the “Property”).
5. The Superior Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to R.I.G. Laws §§ 45-24-60(b) and 45-25-62.
6. The City's Home Rule Charter Section 1008 establishes a Department of Inspections and Standards (the “DIS”) with the authority to interpret and enforce the provisions of the Providence Zoning Ordinance, Chapter 1994-24, No. 365 as amended (the “Ordinance”).
7. The City’s Home Rule Charter Section 1009 establishes the Providence Zoning Board of Review (the “Board”). The Board has authority to grant, deny or grant with conditions applications for relief from the Ordinance.
8. The Defendants’ Property consists of a vacant lot of 3,331 square feet of land. Pursuant to the Ordinance, the land is located in an R-2 (residential) Zone.

9. Section 303 of the Ordinance (Use Code 64.1) prohibits use of the Property as a parking lot.

10. On November 27, 2001 the DIS issued a "Building Inspection Notice of Violation" ("Notice") to Defendants finding that a parking lot had been created without necessary approvals and permits, in violation of the Rhode Island State Building Code. (Attachment 1).

11. On or about December 27, 2001 and March 4, 2002, Defendants advised the City that they were working to resolve the problem. (Attachments 2 and 3),

12. On September 24, 2003, the City sent Defendants another Building Inspection Notice of Violation. (Attachment 4).

13. The City recorded the aforesaid violations in the office of the Recorder of Deeds.

14. Defendants thereafter filed an application with the Board for relief from the provisions of the Ordinance.

15. On or about March 29, 2004, the Board issued a decision granting a use variance and a dimensional variance for the Property, permitting the Property to be used as a parking lot (the "Decision").

16. The Decision was timely appealed to the Superior Court of Providence County (PC04-2141).

17. On April 30, 2004, as a result of the Decision, and as provided by law,¹ the City issued a Building Permit and a Release of Building Inspection Notice for the Property. (Attachment 5).

18. On or about August 1, 2006, the Rhode Island Superior Court sustained the appeal and remanded the matter to the Zoning Board of Review. See 2006 WL 222046 (Vogel, J.).

19. Defendants thereafter failed to appear before the Zoning Board of Review to renew their application and/or to request a further hearing.

20. In October 2007, November 2007, and March 2008, the City issued additional notices of violation to Defendants. (Attachment 6).

21. In January 2012 and June 2012, the City again issued violations to Defendants.

22. The City recorded the aforesaid violations in the office of the Recorder of Deeds.

23. Defendants failed to appeal any such Notices to either the Building Board of Review or to the Zoning Board of Review.

¹ An appeal to the Superior Court did not stay the Board's Decision.

24. Defendants have continued, and continue, to violate the Ordinance by utilizing the Property as a parking lot.

25. Pursuant to Section 806 of the Ordinance, any person who violates or is the owner of property in violation of any of the provisions of the Ordinance "shall be fined" up to five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense. "Each day of the existence of any violation shall be deemed a separate offense."

26. Defendants have violated the Ordinance each day from August 1, 2006 to the present.

27. Defendants have continuously knowingly and willfully violated the Ordinance.

28. Upon information and belief, Defendants have listed and/or advertised the Property as "for sale."

WHEREFORE, the City respectfully requests that this Honorable Court:

1. Impose a fine of up to five hundred ($500.00) per day against Defendants for each day from August 2, 2006 to the present

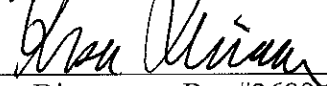

2. Issue a preliminary and permanent injunction preventing and restraining Defendants and/or any other person from owning, managing or otherwise using the Property as a parking lot, and otherwise in violation of the Ordinance.

3. Order such other relief as the Court shall deem appropriate.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

City of Providence by and through its
Treasurer, James J. Lombardi III

RE: 54-56 Gano Street

Dear Mr. Puleo and Ms. Boutin:

I am counsel to the Providence Zoning Board of Review and am writing regarding the vacant lot that you own at 54-56 Gano Street in Providence. As you are aware, the Zoning Board's 2004 decision to allow you to construct a parking lot on this property was appealed to the Superior Court. The Superior Court issued a decision in August 2006 remanding your application to the Board for a new hearing. To date, we have not received a request from you to schedule said hearing.

It has come to the attention of the Department of Inspection and Standards that the lot in question is currently being used for parking. Since the Superior Court did not affirm the Board's decision and remanded the case for a new hearing, use of the vacant lot for parking constitutes a violation of the Zoning Ordinance. As such, this letter shall serve as notice that the lot located at 54-56 Gano Street, also known as Lot 555 on tax Assessor's Plat 17, may not be used for parking. Further, continued use of the lot for parking shall be subject to violations and fines in accordance with the Zoning Ordinance.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact me.

Very truly yours,
